

BLUE LAWS DEFIED BY MD. DRUGGISTS

Baltimore Pill Rollers Vote to Keep Open Sundays
As Usual.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 27.—At a special meeting of the Retail Druggists' Association of Baltimore, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to ignore the Sunday closing mandate of the State and to make a test case of the matter in court, if necessary. This decision was reached after considerable discussion as to whether the edict of Marshal Carter, who has notified the druggists that it will be unlawful to sell anything other than medicines compounded from a doctor's prescription, would be complied with. About 150 druggists attended the meeting.

The question of necessary service rendered to the public on the part of retail druggists, on Sunday, was discussed. There was a decided sentiment in favor of a quiet Sabbath, and the men present were all of the opinion that Sunday should be observed properly, although not to the detriment of jeopardizing the health, comfort and general contentment of the public.

It was resolved unanimously that the welfare of the city required the services afforded by the modern drug store.

GIRL SEEKING BALM HAS VERNE LASHED TO MAST

Woolen Merchant's Attorney Says
She Only Imagined Promise of Marriage.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Julia Verne had nothing on Miss Beverly Jugneau, in the opinion of John V. Bouvier, Jr., attorney for Jesse Metcalf, wealthy clubman and woolen merchant. Miss Jugneau charges Mr. Metcalf with breach of promise, and demands balm of $100,000.

Mr. Bouvier said: "Miss Jugneau has the greatest imagination since the time of Julius Verne. Her tale is absolutely false from beginning to end. We deny her charges in toto."

"They are made of whole cloth and are positively without the slightest foundation. We have answered with a general denial, and we will stand on this answer."

"Of course, Mr. Metcalf knew this woman. But so did a number of other young men. As for asking Miss Jugneau to marry him—the charges are ridiculous from a start to finish."

Miss Jugneau remained in seclusion yesterday. At the Hotel Des Artistes, where she had lived for more than a year, it was said she had left suddenly last Friday night and had not been seen since.

Miss Jugneau is Titian-haired and twenty-four years old. She was born in Chicago and went to Los Angeles, where she was seen in several motion pictures. From California she came to New York about two years ago.

Mr. Metcalf declined to discuss the suit, referring all inquiries to his attorney, Mr. Metcalf. He is a member of the firm of Metcalf Bros. & Co., woolen merchants. He is a Harvard graduate and a member of the Manhattan, Essex County, Larchmont Yacht, and Rockaway Hunting clubs.

GABY DESLYS TO WED; HAS QUIT FOOTLIGHTS

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Gaby Deslys is through with the stage, according to the Daily Mirror. It says she will never follow the lure of the footlights except for charity performances.

But here's something else—Gaby is engaged to marry. About the prospective husband, she will only say he is not an actor.
